Read 1 Peter

Chapter 3

- ▶ In an attempt to understand where Peter was coming from, why would he choose to comment on how wives and husbands were to treat each other? Think “their culture” not ours.

- ▶ In verses 1-7 Peter uses the family dynamic as a way to show how to live a Christian life. How does he do that?

- ▶ In 8 Peter lists five key ways in which followers of Christ should be characterized. What are they and how do we fit into each of them?

Chapter 3

- ▶ In verses 10-12, Peter goes back to Psalm 34: 12-16. Is there a significance to Peter returning to the Psalms here?

- ▶ In verses 10-12 Peter has another list of things to do from Psalm 34. How can we achieve these things and allow them to be part of our prayers and our life? (James 3: 2-18 for more reference)

Chapter 3

- ▶ In verses 13-17, Peter speaks again to the heart of doing right in the face of adversity and persecution. How is our life supposed to look to those who do evil against us? How are we to treat our enemies?

- ▶ In verses 18-22, Peter is moving us to see the sacrifice of Christ and understand the depth of love He has for us. How can we look at this passage in fullness to understand what Jesus has accomplished for us? (Matthew 27: 52-53)
